

SCIR 297 - Fundamentals of Scientific Research I

Experience the excitement of scientific discovery!

- Interested in learning valuable & employable laboratory skills?
- Seeking on-campus research opportunities?
- Want to enhance your resume or transfer application?

- 200-level Biology elective (2 credits, can enroll up to 3 times)
- Credits transfer to most 4-year institutions
- Work with a mentor on their individual research area
- Receive individual training in lab techniques
- Practice analyzing scientific literature
- Present your work at scientific conferences

- Interested in enrolling? Contact the course instructors to discuss their individual research topic and class timing. Instructor permission is required to register

- Rockville instructors:

- Antonio del Castillo
- Michael Chase
- Jim Cosgrove
- Evdokia Kastanos
- Ishrat Rahman
- Aubrey Smith

- Takoma Park/Silver Spring campus: Contact Valerie Lantz (department Chair)

- Germantown campus: Contact Jennifer Capparella (department Chair)

MC MONTGOMERY
COLLEGE

