Memorandum

To: Montgomery College Community

From: Dr. Kimberly B. Kelley, Vice President and Provost, Arts, Business, Education, English, and Social Sciences and Rockville Campus

Subject: Open Forum for BEACAHMPS Dean – Candidate #1

Date: April 12, 2022

The first candidate for the Collegewide dean for business, economics, accounting, computer applications, hospitality management and paralegal studies (BEACAHMPS) position will be on the Rockville Campus Wednesday, April 13 in Macklin Tower, room 101 from 9:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. for an open forum. The open forum will be delivered both in-person and simultaneously streamed via zoom (link here).

Dr. Jacob Ashby currently serves as the assistant dean for academic assessment and articulation for Frederick Community College in Frederick, Maryland. Previously he served as the associate vice president for the Center for Teaching and Learning, and senior researcher for assessment and institutional effectiveness, both at Frederick Community College. He earned A.A. and A.A.S. degree in general studies and graphic design from Hagerstown Community College; a bachelor of science in business administration/marketing from Shippensburg University; a master of science in integrated marketing communication from West Virginia University; and a doctor of education in organizational leadership in higher education from Shenandoah University.

A feedback form will be provided to each attendee, which must be turned in before leaving the room. In addition, a virtual feedback form will be distributed after the forum to virtual attendees. All responses will be kept confidential. Please take advantage of this wonderful opportunity to hear from the candidates.

Candidate #2 will be in Macklin Tower, room 101, on the Rockville Campus on April 14 at 3:00 p.m.
