

MONTGOMERY COLLEGE

A CONVERSATION WITH AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR AND HISTORIAN,
DR. GERALD HORNE
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17, 2025,
7:30PM-9:30PM

Dr. Horne holds the Moores Chair of History and African American Studies at the University of Houston. He is the author of over 40 books including his most recent, Capital of Slavery: Washington DC, 1800-1865, published by International Publishers NYC. The first 40 students will receive a free copy of Dr. Horne's latest book. Books will also be available for sale in the lobby with a book signing following the event.

Doors open and Reception at 6:30
Cultural Arts Center: Main Theater
Takoma Park/Silver Spring
Campus Montgomery College
931 King Street, Silver Spring, MD
20910
Free garage parking available

This event is co-sponsored by the African Diaspora & Heritage Committee; the Global Humanities Institute; the Institute for Race, Justice, and Civic Engagement; the Paul Peck Humanities Institute; and WPFW (89.3fm).

This event is FREE. CLICK HERE to access a ticket!